ADDITIONAL OPPORTUNITIES FOR CONFESSION - Besides our Thursday evening Confession times from 6:30 – 7:30 pm, this Lent, we'll offer daytime confessions from 12 noon – 1:00 pm during the first hour of our period of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Fridays. Please spread the word to those you know who may find this time more convenient.

LENTEN REGULATIONS - The Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence when Catholics over age 14 are to refrain from eating meat. On Good Friday, Catholics ages 18 to 59 are bound to the obligation of fasting, when only one full meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices, are allowed.

PASTOR'S CORNER

What's your focus for Lent? Some might say, I'm going to work at avoiding these certain sins. Others might say, I'm going to try to pray more to make God a more important part of my life. Well, it might help to, first, ask yourself this important, fundamental question. What is your ultimate goal as a Catholic? I often hear people say, "My goal is to get to heaven!" Yes, a worthy goal. But, is that the best reason? If you're of a certain age, you may remember learning the difference between perfect and imperfect contrition. Both are sufficient to obtain God's forgiveness, however sacramental confession of grave sins is still necessary. Imperfect contrition is having sorrow for sin "because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell." The old form of the Act of Contrition continues, "but most of all because I have offended thee, my God, who are all good and deserving of all my love." In other words, a more perfect reason for having sorrow for one's sins is not merely out of fear of going to hell or losing the "reward" of heaven, but because you have offended someone who loves you more than you know and who wants something better for you. One's focus for Lent should ultimately be about one's love of God and His love and desire for you. So, I suggest that in your personal prayer, you ask Jesus to help you deepen your relationship with Him – as a trusted love one. Get to truly know Him, to love him more deeply, and to follow Him more closely. In this effort, your focus is on desiring what Jesus desires for you now, to think like He thinks, to act like He acts, to be like Him as much as you can. Pray with some passages in one of the Gospels to help you develop a deeper knowledge and friendship with Jesus. Talk with Him about what you're reading and listen to what He is saying to you. And, as you grow more in the likeness of Jesus, then, when you meet Him at the final judgement, He's going to look at you and say, "I know you – I can see myself in you... come my friend and be with me for eternity." Try this focus for Lent and see what a difference it will make in your life.

God bless you!
Fr. Bob

In today's Gospel, we have a scene that may make us uncomfortable. Jesus knew that some of the temple practices were rife with social injustices. What made matters worse were that it was done in the name of religion. Jesus' heart ached to think that any Gentile seeking the presence of God would feel unwelcome in the house of God. If Jesus were to enter this church/parish, would he find an exclusiveness, a coldness, or a place where the "seeking" stranger finds welcome, solace and peace? Lent gives us the opportunity to examine our attitudes and make the necessary change so that every person feels welcome in this house of God. The pandemic restrictions need not hinder becoming a strong evangelizing parish.

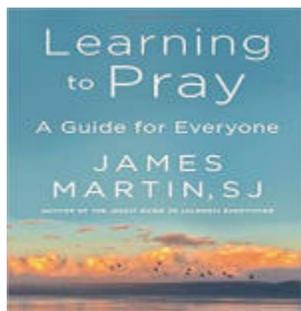

JOIN OUR VIRTUAL PARISH PRAYER COMMUNITY - every Tuesday at 7:00 pm and enjoy a 20-minute prayer experience. This is part of our parish "Season of Prayer" set of offerings to help us expand our experience of prayer and deepen our relationship with God. Check our parish website and click the Prayer tab for the Zoom link to participate.

Along the way, we will unpack the biblical background to these events, the prophecies, and most especially, the ways Jesus is inviting us to walk more closely with him today. We will do it on Tuesdays and Thursdays at lunch time from March 18 - April 1 12:00-1:15 pm. It's a five session Bible Study to draw closer to Christ's passion and the study will conclude on Holy Thursday and prepare us for the Triduum. PASTORAL VISITS

Ordinarily, visits by Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are made to the homes of parishioners unable to come to Mass because of sickness or infirmity. However, during the pandemic, these visits have been suspended. However, if a person is dying (even in the early stages), a visit by a priest can be arranged for reception of the Sacraments of Reconciliation, the Anointing of the Sick, and Viaticum (Holy Communion for the Dying) and other special prayers and blessings. These arrangements can be made by notifying a priest directly or by using the emergency option on the parish phone system.
