New SUNDAY NIGHT MASSES

5:00 pm - June 12

PASTOR'S CORNER

It was 34 years ago today, May 8, 1988, that our "new" church building on Tremont Street was dedicated. The Catholic community had outgrown the much smaller church on St. George Street, which was later sold and transformed into the Ellison Center for the Arts, a campus of the South Shore Conservatory. Our present church building has suited our needs well, accommodating the growth our Catholic community has experienced over the years. It was very fitting that on April 28, 2012, the parish center in the lower level was named in honor of the pastor responsible for building the new church, Monsignor William F. Glynn. A beautiful bronze plaque, which memorializes this dedication, appears outside the Chestnut Street entrance. Our parish community is truly grateful for his vision, dedication and leadership, which has blessed us with the beautiful facilities we benefit from today. With regular maintenance, replacements and repairs, including some updating and renovations, our church, from all appearances, has remained a beautiful and functional house of worship since its construction in 1988. Through parishioners' continued commitment and generosity, this holy place will be kept well-maintained for many years to come. In fact, plans are in process to refurbish our parish center. So, in the coming months, we'll provide you with details on how you can make help it happen. Exciting improvements are coming!

Also, today marks the 59th Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. It is traditionally observed on "Good Shepherd Sunday." The purpose of this day is to publically fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity, secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life. Please pray that men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, societies of apostolic life or secular institutes. You can find many resources to promote a culture of vocations at www.usccb.org/vocations.

God bless you!
Fr. Bob

For more information about joining our Council, contact: John Rutkowski: 781-934-2968 (jarski1kofc@gmail.com). More info can also be found at: kofc.org or talk with a Knight. Our Council #15210 meets on the third Wednesday of the month. Information is available at the exits.

AT THE DOORS OF THE CHURCH TODAY - members of the Respect Life Committee are selling silk roses for Mother's Day. Donations will be given to benefit the mothers and babies at the Friends of the Unborn Home. God Bless you for your generosity!

ASP CAR WASH - It's BACK! Join us next Sunday, May 15 for the HOLY FAMILY WASH 'N WORSHIP car wash to benefit our Appalachian Service Project (ASP). Drop your car off prior to Mass and we'll have it ready to go when Mass gets out. $10 per car for exterior only. $20 per car for Interior/Exterior Wash & Vacuum.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION - Please pray for our young children who are receiving their First Holy Communion this spring. They will be receiving at the following weekend Masses: Sat., May 7 at 5:00 pm; Sun., May 8 at 9:00 am; Sat., May 14 at 5:00 pm; Sun., May 15 at 10:30 am; and Sat., May 21 at 5:00 pm. If you are at a Mass where some children will receive their First Holy Communion, please make a special effort to go up to one or more of them and congratulate them, letting them know how proud you are of them. As we welcome our young people around the Table of the Lord, we can let them know how much we look forward to their joining us at Mass each weekend and what a blessing it is to now share in the Eucharist with these little brothers and sisters in Christ who have anticipated this moment for a long time.

ARCHDIOCESAN MASK MANDATE IS LIFTED - However, people who wish to continue wearing a mask are welcome to do so. The Archdiocese still requires a parish to provide a section of the church for those who wish to wear masks and social distance. And so, our parking lot section will remain available for that purpose. That is why we still enter the church through the front door to avoid filling that section with people who do not need to wear a mask and social distance. Thank you for your cooperation!

YOUNG CHILDREN'S RELIGIOUS BOOKS - are available in the front narthex of the church for young families to use while attending Mass. When finished with them, they should be returned for use by others.

PEOPLE NEEDED TO KEEP SECURITY VIGIL FOR FRIDAY ADORATION

Those wanting to sign up for a half an hour or an hour should contact Carole McCarthy at cmc11@prodigy.net. All are welcome to drop in for Eucharistic Adoration anytime during this period.

ALTAR SERVER MINISTRY

- We have resumed our Altar Server ministry at Holy Family for children 10 years and older. The commitment is small; one or two weekend Masses a month, flexible according to your child's availability. Training is offered by appointment. Parents of interested children should contact Phillip Nagy at phillip.nagy@verizon.net.

CENTERING PRAYER GROUP - meets on Thursdays through June 9 from 1:00 to 2:00 pm and then on Thursdays beginning June 16 through the summer from 10:30 to 11:30 am in the Herrick Conference Room in the parish center (lower church). A portion of the time will involve Centering Prayer, which is a practice of silent prayer that prepares participants to experience God's presence within us moving beyond conversation with Christ to communion with Him. There will also be time for Lectio Divina ("divine reading") that allows participants to listen to Scripture with the "ear of the heart" as if in conversation with Christ as He suggests the topics for discussion, which come from thoughts, images and insights. The group's purpose is to help sustain a commitment to this regular prayer practice and to accompany one another on this spiritual journey. Those interested in these traditional prayer practices are welcome to join this group and should contact Mary Jane Roche at mjroche05@gmail.com or Michelle Freeman at maf49@verizon.com. Thomas Keating.
