

Yesterday, I asked if anyone can be available to read at a 12:00 Noon Mass on Easter Sunday. So far, no one has offered to serve at that Mass, but we are still looking for a lector for that liturgy. Please let me know if you serve with Fr. Bob at that noon Mass. Thank you!

Here is the March lector schedule.....

Good afternoon, everyone. Looks like Mother Nature is bringing an early spring to the South Shore. It hasn't been a particularly difficult winter, but spring is welcome just the same!

[As always, one of the deacons will read the Prayer of the Faithful at the Masses marked with an asterisk.]

I will send a separate note to those of you who are assigned to one of the Holy Week liturgies to give you additional information about those assignments.

As I said last year at this time, Easter is an appropriate time to thank all of you for your service as lectors to the people of Holy Family parish! The readings are one of the most important parts of the Mass, and our parishioners are fortunate to have you present the Word of the Lord to them in such a meaningful way.

Happy Easter!
